College-An Increased Negro

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.) ent to-day had an interview with E. C. Smith, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, who stated that the aign which begins to-day is to be the st aggressive of record in North Carolips in an off year.

Senator Vance to-day spoke at the Catawba county fair and to-morrow speaks at the Cabarrus county fair.

Senator Ransom makes his first speech at Waynesville next Tuesday.

REGISTRATION. Chairman Smith says the only trouble is as to registration, and in order to secure a proper registration hundreds of thousands of notices to register will be sent out. The news as to the temper and status of the Democrats improves, and Chairman Smith is pleased at the outlook.

A VALUABLE DONATION. Mrs. Alma Avera has presented to Trinity College, at Durham, 643 acres of valuable land in Johnston county, with the proceeds of the sale of which the Avera-memorial building is to be erected in memory of her late husband, Willis H. Avera. This is the fifth building thus given, and in it divinity school is to be established. The other four buildings given are the main building, technological building, science building, and library. building, technologic building, and library.

DEMAND FOR NEGRO LABOR. Parties who have just returned from Louisiana, Alabama, Arkansas, and Mississippi learned from cotton-planters in those States that the demand for negro laborers from North Carolina will this year be much greater than last. The farmers say they must have the labor, and that the agents will go after it in November. Last year the agents got to work too late, and the result was that as many negroes could not be secured as they had made contracts for. PLANTERS COMING AFTER THEM.

In the new year not only will many labor agents and representatives of railways be at work, but planters will come here themselves in search of what they want. It is quite often the case that the farmers here will permit other farmers to take away the negroes when they would not allow the labor agents to do so.

A HOME FOR THE POOR VETS. Camp Russell Purchased for North Carolina's Disabled Soldiers.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

RAINGH, N. C., October 1.—Last July it was thought that arrangements for the purchase of a site for a Confederate soldiers' home here were complete, but there was some hitch. To-day the grounds known as Camp Russell, for years used as a camp by the regular troops, were purchased by W. C. Stronach, of the Executive Committee of the State Veterans' Association. There are aiready a number of buildings, and the work of preparation begins to-morrow.

THE BIGGEST TOBACCO SALE

Of the Year at Chase City-Buyers from All the Markets Present.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] (Special selegram to the Dispatch.)

CRASE CITY, VA., October 1.—One of the largest sales of leaf tobacco during the year took place here today. The offerings were principally brights of superior quality. Buyers were present from Richmond, Danville, Oxford, and Durham. Prices ruled high. All the crop in this section has been secured. The color and texture were unusually fine. Planters are in better spirits than for many years. Three large tobacco warehouses are now in operation here. Two extensive prizeries are in course of construction.

Several sales of farms have been made near here recently. Town lots are in demand and sell readily. Solid and substantial progress on every side.

IRVIN WHE GER. Freight and Passenger Agent.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1890, beginning at 12 o'clock M., about 150 LOTS in the plan of "Hennic's," on the east side of the Brook road and about one mile from the city.
This is the prettiest plot of land in that growing section, and the improvements now making in that direction, both this site and beyond, coupled with the superb highway to be st once constructed out of that abomination known as the "Rrook Turnpike," combine to make this the most promising suburb around the city.
The healthfulness of the location and the excellence of the neighborhood are things known to every one, and the nearness of the lots make them desirable for all-the-year-around homea.
This is the first subdivision and sale of this choice property, and as prices will rule low by comparison with what they will probably be two years hence, I would urge errybody-speculator and home-seeker—to look at the property before the day of sale, and then come and buy one or more lois. Flat at my office.
